Dear Mr. Bown:

On February 1, 2002, we received your letter stating that effective March 2, 2000, Utah Building Stone Supply was incorporated into Bonneville Quarries, Inc. You are the registered agent for both companies, with no other principals. Your letter stated the Utah Building Stone Supply business name was dissolved and the new name of Bonneville Quarries, Inc. was adopted.

We have changed our file records to the new company name, Bonneville Quarries, Inc. Because you are the owner and registered agent of both companies, no other paperwork will be required at this time. When the sureties are due for revision or change, the paperwork should then be made out in the new company name.

Thank you for keeping us apprised of the status of your operations.

Sincerely,

D. Wayne Hedberg
